ABOUT

One of the most lovingly refurbished villas on Mykonos, Villa AS06 indulges guests with sophisticated Cycladic hospitality and a feeling of being pampered by good friends. The villa boasts a 180-degree panorama of Cycladic islands and Mykonos town, allowing guests to imagine those early Aegean travelers leisurely crossing the sea on their way to trade goods or pilgrimage.

This home stands out for its understated sophistication and unique character that follows an alternative approach to Mediterranean holiday living and it can easily accommodate up to 14 guests in 6 beautiful bedrooms.

The original 1980's building has been completely renovated in 2019 and personally decorated by the owners with handpicked design objects, antique furniture, original artworks and modern equipment, in a way that feels casual, laid back and effortless.

The villa's cool interiors feature pristine terrazzo floors throughout, rustic wood-carved doors, traditional ceramic tiles and superior local marble for the bathrooms and kitchen. Outside, a variety of terraces, balconies and niches distributed around the property allow for increased privacy even among a large group of guests.

The villa is situated in Agia Sofia, an area that is sought-after for its breathtaking views, increased sense of privacy and close distance to Mykonos town and the entertainment spots on the island.
